About the Inspiration

Led by a local pilot Hank Cheng, and with support from the Inspiration Team, the first-ever homebuilt aircraft certified to fly under Hong Kong registration, B-KOO Inspiration, took off from Hong Kong International Airport for the first time on 15 November 2015, marking an exciting moment for Hong Kong aviation.

About the Speaker

Ir Gary Tat, a Licensed Aircraft Engineer, who shares the same dream with Hank of building and certifying the first homebuilt aircraft in Hong Kong.

In this technical talk, Ir Gary Tat will share with you of his experiences on constructing the aircraft in Hong Kong. The Inspiration team had to adhere to stringent construction and operational standards. The operational certification, pre-flight testing and risk assessments were all fully documented by the team to demonstrate the airworthiness of “Inspiration” and ensure its safe operations.

Registration

The number of participants is limited to 150 and applications will be accepted on a first-come first-served basis with priority to members of the Aircraft Discipline/Division. For registration, please click HERE.
