

Aircraft Division AGM Lecture Dinner 2023 COMAC C919 – Challenges & Opportunities

By Mr David LUI Wing Chiu CEng FRAeS
*Senior Director, Procurement & Supplier Management Department
The Commercial Aircraft Corporation of China Limited (COMAC)*

Date: 4 May 2023 (Thursday)

Time: 6:00 pm (for registration); 7:00 pm – 10:00 pm

Venue: The Regal Airport Hotel, Hong Kong International Airport.

About the lecture speaker

Mr Lui is a Hong Kong home-grown aviation executive who has devoted over 38 years to airworthiness & safety, operation efficiency, engineering excellence, corporate brand building, creation and retention of shareholders' values. He is renowned for his capacity in collaborating with various international business partners, aviation authorities and government officials. He started his professional career with Cathay Pacific Engineering and has taken up various executive positions with Dragonair, Hong Kong Airlines etc..

His current assignment in Shanghai has provided another opportunity as well as challenges to his career. China is determined to design, build and market its large commercial aircraft which inevitably fuels the enormous growth of its aviation industries. COMAC was formed in 2008 to pursue this longstanding objective and recruited Mr Lui in a senior management capacity. He joined COMAC Customer Services as Assistant President in 2009 and from 2018 moved onto Supply Chain management as Senior Director of Procurement. He participated in various crucial phases of C919 program development, from JDP System Suppliers selection, Contracts negotiation, First flight and TIA, eventually Type Certification on 26th September, first production aircraft delivery and its imminent EIS. He will walk through the key program challenges, milestones, while sharing the programme outlook into the next decade.
